COMMISSIONER J. W. ROSS.

OUR CHIEF RETURNED.

Commissioner John W. Ross who took French leave some few days ago without the knowledge or consent of over 200,000 people who love honor and respect him, returned to the city as mysteriously as he left and to the gratification of all. Col. Ross was greeted with fine addresses from those who had the same love for him as the father had for the Prodigal Son. His desk was bedecked with flowers as if the gods were to be crowned after a victorious return from the field of battle.

The people love Colonel Ross. He is the colored man's friend, he is the orphans' and widows' protector; he is a friend to the colored youth who in his struggling moments Colonel Ross has extended a welcome hand. He has endeared himself to the people by his honesty and fatherly advice to the needy. He is no demagogue nor will he associate with one. He is the people's Commissioner and for that and other reasons we in common with the people honor and respect him. Colonel, here is our hand.

The New Year will bring prosperity.
Things are not what they seem to be.

Speak the truth always and no more.

The world is a stage and the people are merely players.

The democratic party will bring Bryan to the front in 1900.

Don't be disappointed should you hear sudden news.

If you don't succeed in your first attempt try again.

If you know a thing that is not pleasant to your neighbor don't tell it.

Judge Scott is giving entire satisfaction.

It is the great man who never stoops to small things.

Don't abuse your neighbor, it is unwise.

Speak well of those who abuse you.

Right is bound to prevail.

No wrong act can succeed.

It is the noble man who refuses to stoop to small things.

In union there is strength.

The democratic party will abolish the civil service should it come in power.

It will be a thing of the past.

The appointment of Judge Kimball is a mistake.

Commissioner J. W. Ross will not resign, just as The BEE reported.

The people would not permit him.

Commissioner Black will have to step down and out.

If there was less board of trade in appointments, no doubt there would be less friction.

Never desert your friends.

When you make friends keep them.

The world is full of trouble.

Some people are never satisfied.

The world is not what it should be.

The colored republicans are still wondering.

The Augusta post-office is still waiting for a republican head.

Do as you promise and no one will blame you.

Never desert those who defend you.

If you have a friend keep him.

Do as you promise and no one will blame you.

If you can succeed alone go ahead.

If you know what to do without the aid of your friend do so.

There will be several candidates for the District attorneyship.

What do you think the world is coming to?

Don't condemn a per on because he should make a mistake.

It is the wrong man you accuse sometimes.

South Washington is perfectly satisfied with Trustee Richardson.

There will be another change in the schools.

It is the man who speaks the truth that will succeed.

Editor Smith of the Cleveland Gazette is still kicking.

Don't be alarmed when you are confronted by the enemy.

Do you tell the truth always?

The colored attorney has a great deal to learn.

There must be unity of action in the legal profession.

Do as you think best and nothing more.

A happy New Year to you all.

New pledges were made this year.

Yes, new vows were made to be soon broken.

A positive character will succeed.

It is the brave man who will win.

Right is bound to prevail no matter what may happen.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

The glory and pride of the American nation and the intelligent and strong young colored men who are new features in the body politic, the young Negro of to-day is not the Negro of thirty years ago. Having been born in an age of freedom, knowing nothing of the tortures and depravity of the slave system, fresh from the universities, high school and manual training institutions, vigorous, healthy, filled with the spirit of patriotism, capable of judging for himself, fitted to reason out the problems of the age; he is well fortified with all the elements of a perfect manhood; therefore he is to be treated differently than the fathers were treated. He demands more and can do more, so that in dealing with him he seems to be apart from the great mixture known as the Negro race of America, but he is not; he is the beginning of a new posterity who are just beginning to climb the rugged and beautiful sides of the world's civilization, though the struggle is hazardous and fierce, even death overtakes many in the march, yet we are moving steadily on and some day will reach the pinnacle and look down upon the others who are coming upward. All people of whatever civilization have leaders, parties and principles to which they adhere. The earliest ages denote the strength of one man over another of one principle over another, of one form of government over another and whatever the manner or custom, whatever the physical or natural environments, whatever the faith or belief, man has wisely or ignorantly believed in something and labored by sentiment, eloquence, and bloodshed to support his belief and foster its growth.

At the present time the great American Republic, the brightest star of the world's galaxy is governed by the people, who by that matchless power, the ballot, declare whose right it shall be to reign.

Here we have two grand political institutions with a third one making much headway. The Republican party, the Democratic party, and the Populist. These are possibly subdivided and there are many other parties of less degree and prominence, but the parties that have moulded the glory and fame of America are the Republican party and the Democratic. Men should be free to reason as they see matters. No man should be coerced to support a principle he does not believe, but many men do not support parties for the reason that no logical causes or effects are ever shown them to brighten their wisdom. Teach them the virtues of a party or acquaint them of their duty, hence we desire to briefly suggest a few reasons why the young colored man should support the Republican party, asking that they measure these facts, think over them and if they are not true or they cannot believe as we do, then let "Ephraim be joined unto his idols, for if Israel be not saved, Jacob shall not lose his reward."

The young Negro should support the Republican party because he should be patriotic and the Republican party is the party that represents the true American spirit of patriotism. Next to man's love for his Creator should come his love for country, despite the fact that we have heard colored men say they didn't love this country on account of certain outrages practiced upon them by certain classes. We love America and we charge every young Negro man from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from Canada to the Gulf to nourish and cultivate a spirit of patriotic love for America.

"My country 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty of thee I sing. Land of the Pilgrim's Pride, Land where our Fathers died."

It was here our fathers and mothers were brought from the darkness of Africa; it was here they suffered and died as slaves and even though it was a wicked and mean institution, it was the crucible through which we were passing to a brighter day, it was the gold being tried by fire and while we have only words of condemnation for the horrors added to the system, we cannot but help seeing much good in our being brought to this country as we were. Our fathers have shed their blood here to purchase their liberty and defend the flag. Our every sorrow and joy has been here; yes, we love this land; and for the reason that the Republican party is the great party that is typical of patriotism and love of country, we should support such a party. Secondly, the Republican party is the party that truly believes in protecting our home industries and providing work for the wage earner.

The Republican party believes in more than a tariff for revenue only. It believes in protecting the raw and manufactured products of our own farms and workshops. It does not believe in placing our wage-earner on the basis of the pauper labor of other nations and for that reason we saw proper to put in the White House the renowned apostle of protection, who has declared that instead of "opening our mints for the world's cheap silver we should open our mills for the American laborer." This party has fulfilled its promises by the adoption and action of the Dingley tariff bill and already we have seen a revival in business, thousands of unemployed have been given work and it will not be long before a gracious era of prosperity will wave over this country and God be praised such men as Bryan, Tillman and Altgeld cannot keep it back for it will come so truly, firmly and so forcibly that they will be crushed to silence by its power. We should be found on the side of such a party. Another reason why the young colored man should support the Republican party is because it believes in an honest dollar. But the people were honest and would not heed such an attempt; the Republican party believes that the metal of the greatest intrinsic value should be the money standard; they also believe in a liberal use of silver and to-day are inviting the other nations to join them in international bimetalism which will increase the value of silver and give it a greater use among all nations of earth, but suffice it to say that we are a solvent nation with a healthy financial system. The product of the Republican party gives us the liberty of invoking every Negro to join its ranks and vote to maintain its power. We were told that as long as we refused the free coinage of silver so long would the farmer suffer, but ere the prophecy is dry on the lips of the prophet, we behold wheat selling for a dollar per bushel and the farmers who believe in him and would not sow wheat were like the servant of the Lord who was sent to return by the same way but was lured a different way by a false prophet who claimed he was sent by God. He heeded this prophecy and when they went to look for him they found his carcass his beast and a fierce lion standing near, so with those farmers they were deceived and their carcasses of devastation, starvation and ruin their political jackasses and the bulls of Wall Street are all that you can now see. The Republican party is the party of freedom. It is an everlasting debt of gratitude we owe to such a party and God grant we may never forget those who remembered us when we most needed their help.

The Republican party is the defender of a free ballot. It believes in equal suffrage to all citizens of whatever color or condition. No State controlled by the Republican party would enact such election laws as South Carolina and Mississippi. The Republican party throws no barrier before the ballot box it is free to every citizen. It is a power wielded by President and people, by millions and by super, by learned and unlearned, by black and white, by saint and sinner, our party believes in a free ballot.

Republicans have sent cadets to West Point and Annapolis and they maintain a friendly spirit for our civil and political welfare. We see no other shrine at which to worship, we see no other pathway to tread, and we catch no inspiration from any other party. Hence as for us and our house we will serve this party. We do not promise or ask you to serve all its men, for if they are not right spurn them. We do as you ever to support its principles and see to it that our friends and proper men represent those principles. In the places where we are in the majority or hold the balance of power—and here we suggest that the time is ripe that Negro Republicans should represent Negroes in the councils of the Republic.

SENATOR HANNA.

The loyal republicans all over the country are watching with profound interest the action of the Ohio legislature with regard to the election of a senator. Aside from the matter of Senator Hanna's right to election, based upon an unqualified expression of the state convention in his favor, there are other considerations which are likely to assume national importance. The spirit of mugwumpism which began in the State of New York some years ago seems to have progressed until it has permeated almost every state and is destroying organization and demoralizing the republican party as a national organization. Should the fusionists in Ohio succeed there is no telling the extent of the impetus which will be given to sore-heads and kickers generally in other states.

We believe in organization of the most perfect and harmonious type. Without it the tenure of the republican party will be precarious, its policy fickle and its principles uncertain of crystallization into acts and policies beneficial to the country. Adequate organization implies every moral force which can be united in carrying out a purpose and those forces are represented by county, state and national committees whose powers coordinate and whose acts harmonize with fixed party policy. When a convention, especially a state convention, declares in favor of certain principles or men that declaration should be sacredly observed by every true republican. Those who refuse to abide by the will of the people so expressed are not republicans in true sense and should be treated accordingly. Senator Hanna is not only the logical candidate by reason of the collateral considerations which entered into the last election, but he is a rightful one because the state convention expressed, unequivocally, its desire that he should represent the state in the Senate. The election of Senator Hanna will be an endorsement of proper republican methods, his defeat will be an expression of party weakness which will be felt the country over. We trust that the outcome of the contest will cast no shadow on the fair name of Ohio and that Senator Hanna may resume his seat in the Senate with the prospects of a long and useful career.

BE CAREFUL.

That the fair name of our teachers should not be carelessly handled by idle mischief-makers and scandal-mongers goes without saying. It is to be regretted however, that two most worthy and useful teachers have been the subject of much unwise and unfavorable comment. How the rumor started is not known, but certain it is that the persons in question are innocent, as a careful inquiry has shown. Those who handle the names of persons carelessly should have a care, as a reputation may be destroyed and the usefulness and future prospects of an individual may be impaired. There is no punishment so severe for a person who carelessly, wilfully and maliciously seeks to injure the reputation of his fellowman.

The plan of re-organization which is contemplated by which the great body of the colored voters is to be disfranchised calls for strenuous and united opposition on the part of the prominent colored men of that section. There is danger ahead and those who are here ought to take a hand in the fight and show their title to federal recognition. Strange that our Louisiana statesman should be here fostering a way time when the rights and liberties of their constituents are in danger of destruction.

The reception of Gen. Geo. H. Harries was a grand success. Seldom does a young man enter upon a station so high under such favorable and promising circumstances. We bespeak the General a wise and successful administration. Our District Militia should be proud of him.

REGISTER BRUCE'S PATRONAGE.

Some of our contemporaries wholly unmindful of the civil service rules have stated that the Register of the Treasury has the appointment of clerks and other employes in his office and have most patriotically suggested the names of several well deserving persons as the proper ones to receive recognition in the way of appointment in his office. The persons urged are as a general rule worthy and competent and we know it would afford the present Register special pleasure to give them the places they seek, for if there is a man living who earnestly desires to provide an adequate number of places for deserving Afro-Americans that man's name is B. K. Bruce. But it is the misfortune of this office to be limited in his power of appointment. The civil service covers every position in his office and he cannot appoint a single individual to a place under him; not even his messenger, for even this humble functionary is covered by the civil service. The only way to remedy this state of affairs is to modify or repeal the civil service law. Until this is done there is no road to clerkships or messengerships except through the civil service commission.

There is some talk of improving the industrial and manual department of our public schools. Be it so. But this cannot be done by talk. It requires vigorous and thoughtful work. The intellectual standard of the teachers should be raised and those who hope to teach should not only know how to perform the practical work in hand; but also to be able to excite interest on the part of our children in the work and thus inspire respect for honest toil. There is not enough of this at present. Let us hope that desired conditions may not be long delayed.

Any man who thinks that republicans will put him in office to retain democrats to the exclusion of party workers is mistaken.

Well, the general opinion is that the Board of Trade is opposed to District suffrage. The Board of Trade doesn't always express the will of the people.

Our school system is "weighed in balance and is found wanting" in many particulars.

DR. RICHARDSON PROMOTED.

Dr. George H. Richardson, one of the most efficient clerks in the Sixth Auditor's Office, has on the recommendation of Captain Castle been promoted to his old position at $1,600 per annum. As has always been stated by the BEE, Auditor Castle is a true friend of the Negro. We thank Captain Castle and congratulate Dr. Richardson.

JUDGE PUGH.

There is no man more highly respected than Prosecutor James L. Pugh of the Police Court. He stands as popular among all classes of citizens as our esteemed friend, Col. J. W. Ross. He has proven his friendship for the colored people and for that reason he is popular among them. He has been fair towards his own race and for that reason he is regarded a just man.

COLONEL PERKINS.

The interest which Col. S. A. Perkins took in the advancement of Dr. Richardson shows that he is upright, manly and fearless in his support of our people where merit and manhood are manifested. Colonel Perkins is to be commended for his fairness.

NO WHITE GIRLS THERE.

Some of our District courts do certainly dispense some very peculiar justice. In the Police Court this week a young white girl was an unwilling witness against a married white man who was charged under the Edmunds law with having improper relations with her. The Court would like to have sent her to the Reform School but as all the inmates there are colored the Court decided to send her to the Home of the Good Shepherd. This is not the first case of this kind. A white girl is no better than some colored girls holding similar stations in life. We ought to have a judge of the Police Court who knows no man by his color.

THE CONGRESSIONAL LYCEUM.

BRANDY YOUNG MEN SPEAK.—A LARGE AUDIENCE PRESENT.—INTERESTING DEBATE.

A very appropriate programme was presented by the National Congressional Lyceum at Odd Fellows' Hall, 1609 M street n. w., at 3 p. m. Sunday last. Prof. A. S. Richardson delivered the principal address, subject, "President Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation." The speaker reviewed the social and political conditions which existed prior to and during the late war, and the events which led up to the issuance of the proclamation which document in scope and purpose was without a parallel in history either ancient or modern. He observed in conclusion that there are thousands of colored persons from the late confederate states now resident in the District who were not affected by the act of Congress, approved April 16, 1862, practically freeing the slaves here, and who, therefore, should observe the 1st day of January as Emancipation Day.

Quite a lively discussion followed in which Lawyers T. L. Jones and E. V. Davis, Messrs. Fossett, Cooper, Dixon, Johnson, Peters, and Dr. Cypress, pastor of John Wesley A. M. E. Zion Church. Dr. Cypress was present at the initial meeting of the Lyceum and since manifested much interest in its success. Mr. Compton, director of the John Wesley Church choir has accepted the position of the Lyceum's musical director.

The Asbury M. E. Church choir, Prof. J. Henry Lewis, director, were present and sang several classic selections, among which "Kyrie" and "Gloria" (Farmer's masses) and "Santos" (St. Cecilia's mass).

Sunday next at 3 p. m. W. Calvin Chase, editor of the BEE, will read a paper entitled, "The Colored Attorney and his Impediments," and Messrs. Herndon, Jones, and Robert Pryor will render a violin and piano duet.

This Lyceum is daily gaining in popularity and from present outlook it bids fair to be the leading institution in this city. President Martin is a dignified presiding officer and knows parliamentary law.

DR. DANIEL H. WILLIAMS

IN CHICAGO;

HIS ENEMIES TRIED TO INSULT HIM, BUT THE PEOPLE REBUKED THEM. THE EXCLUSIVE BLUE VEINS CONDEMNED.

From The Chicago Record.

The colored citizens of Chicago are still congratulating themselves on having the very great pleasure a few weeks ago of blushing in the faces of King Loyd G. Wheeler and Prince C. E. Bentley, an occasion which was afforded them at the graduating exercises of Provident Hospital and Training school. The distinguished gentlemen only came among the race, to try to represent, about once or twice a year, when there is a chance to get some newspaper notoriety, or when the question is asked as to who is the leading Negroes of this city. Of course the first man you see, will be King Loyd G. Wheeler and Prince C. E. Bentley. But when they desire to attend church they go over to Michigan Ave., which is as good as to say no Negro is good enough to preach to them. The sooner the race gets rid of such men, the better off it will be.

Referring to Provident Hospital reminds me of the daring insult given Dr. Daniel Williams, the founder of that institution at the exercises recently held in Bethel A. M. E. Church. Mr. L. G. Wheeler, President of the Board of Directors, would not allow the renowned Doctor to say a few words as a token of appreciation for those who have so successfully taken up the work he began, under circumstances most discouraging. Everybody in the audience was too full for utterance, in condemnation of the president's action. So intense was the disgust that a person arose and requested that Dr. Williams be allowed to speak which was granted, and the audience went wild with applause. The Doctor made a short talk expressing his thanks for the opportunity. He also spoke encouragingly of the Hospital and its work after which, all went home feeling proud with the victory won over President Wheeler.

REV KENDALL SPEAKS.

New Orleans, La., Dec. 29th, '97. To the Editor of THE BEE: As one of your many subscribers in this section of the country and one of the admirers of your great Negro Journal, allow me space enough, to express my gratification on the appointment of Senator Bruce, as register of the treasury. I live in New Orleans, La., but, I am a citizen of Mississippi and as a resident of Louisiana, I want to thank President McKinley for appointing Mr. Bruce, and say to him it is the only appointment that has given entire satisfaction to the Negroes of this country. In reading your paper I noticed that every state except Louisiana, has endorsed the appointment. Long live THE BEE the colored man's truest and most fearless advocate.

I am yours respectfully,

REV. G. W. E. KENDALL.

Hon. H. P. Cheatham, Recorder of Deeds, returned to the City last Monday from N. C., where he delivered an oration on New Year's day. At the close of his address he was given a grand ovation by admiring friends.

Hon. John C. Dancy, of North Carolina, was at the Department of State Friday and introduced the new Librarian Minister to Secretary Sherman.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON.

HIS FALSE THEORIES EXPOSED BY A YALE GRADUATE BEFORE THE BETHEL LITERARY TUESDAY EVENING.—A LARGE AND ENTHUSIASTIC AUDIENCE PRESENT.—THE POSITION OF THE BEE INDORSSED.

False theories of Booker T. Washington by Wm. H. Ferris, a graduate of Yale College and a Hopkins scholar of Harvard University.

Mr. Ferris admitted the push and executive ability of Booker T. Washington. He appreciated the magnificent work that Booker T. Washington was doing at Tuskegee. But Mr. Ferris was opposed to the unmanly uncalculated and unnecessary concessions which Booker T. Washington has made to southern prejudice. For the last two years Mr. Washington has been in the New England states spoken in disparaging terms of the work that has been done in the schools for the higher education of the negro. Mr. Washington has spoken in disparaging terms of those many negroes who aspire to reach the top and who demand their full, civil and political rights.

Mr. Ferris claimed that Booker T. Washington has played into the hands of those northern and southern white men who think that the negro must know his place and must not meddle with politics.

Mr. Washington is the apostle of Gen. Armstrong, who believed that a common school education was good enough for a negro. At last the south has found in Booker T. Washington the man for whom it has been looking for fifty years. The south has found in Booker T. Washington a negro with an eloquent tongue and compromising spirit who will sell his race to gain the favor of the southern white man.

Mr. Ferris claimed that American prejudice made the negro problem because it put artificial restrictions upon the negro's activity and did not give the negro an equal chance in the higher walks of life, in the north and elsewhere, the Trade Union discriminates against the negro.

Mr. Ferris did not blame Booker T. Washington for trying to live peacefully with the south, but Mr. Ferris condemned Booker T. for making such statements as, "I love the white man of the south." "I have the profoundest sympathy for the rebel soldiers who went back to face a ruined fortune and blasted hopes, I thank God that I have grown to the point where I can sympathize with a southern white man as well as I can sympathize with a northern white man."

"I thank God that I can sympathize with a southern white man as well as I can sympathize with the black man."

Mr. Ferris held that Booker T. Washington's love was not the love of benevolence nor a Christ-like love, but Booker T. Washington's love for the white man of the south was the love of complacency, it was a slave's love, a boy's love, the love that kisses the hand that smites one.

Mr. Ferris held that Booker T. Washington was a trimmer and a sycophant. His speeches abound in eloquent platitudes. Mr. Washington says can be understood in a double way. He puts the white man of the south on the shoulder, pleases the white man of the south, and then comes and jollies the negroes.

All over the north there is a silent grumbling at Booker T. Washington's moral cowardice, and even a few white men are disgusted with Booker T. Washington's cringing attitude.

Mr. Ferris says that he can refer to many intelligent colored citizens of Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island, who can affirm that Booker T. Washington has caused the northern white man to underrate the mental and moral capacity of the negro.

Booker T. Washington has caused the northern white man to lose confidence in the schools for the higher education of the negro. Booker T. Washington has spoken of the ignorance, but said not a word about the intelligence, culture and refinement which prevails in Washington and southern societies.

Mr. Hillier, Mr. Lawson and Mr. Thompson spoke in favor of Booker T. Washington, but they kept silent about Mr. Washington's assertions, "that the thirty years spent in Greek and Latin was time wasted."

Mr. Washington at a reception given by Gov. Greenhalge in Massachusetts, spoke of colored men being thrown out of cars and theatres as trifles, he said that it was unmanly for negroes to try to go where the southern white man did not want them to go.

Prof. Hart, Mr. Laster, Lawyer Jones and another gentleman spoke eloquently against Booker T. Washington. The audience went away satisfied that Washington was a trimmer and made servile and unnecessary concessions to southern prejudice.

It was said that Mr. Hillier's sisters or cousin was teaching in Washington's schools. It was said that Mr. Lawson had been entertained by Booker T. Washington at Tuskegee, that is why they defended Mr. Washington. Mr. Ferris condemns Booker T. Washington because he has spoken against the noble work done in such colleges as Howard, Atlanta and Fiske. Mr. Ferris says that "Washington wallows in the mud and mire of southern prejudice to gratify an itching palm and please the white man of the south."

A NEW "GIBSON GIRL."

A new "Gibson girl" drawn by the famous society artist, C. L. Gibson, will make her debut in print as the cover design for the February Ladies Home Journal. The new "girl" is the artist's own little daughter, who, at one year of age, will be shown as drawn by her clever father. The legend under the picture is "My Valentine."

THE MOST POPULAR APPOINTMENT MADE.

THE ENTIRE COUNTRY INDORSSES THE REGISTER.

JUST AS THE BEE PREDICTED.

Legation of the United States, Port-au-Prince, Haiti, December 17, 1897.

Hon. B. K. BRUCE, Washington, D. C.

SIR: Permit me to express to you my hearty congratulations in your reappointment to an office so honorably filled in a previous administration, with credit to yourself and honor to the race with which we are both identified. I trust, sir, you will add new laurels to those you have already won.

Respectfully yours, W. F. FOWELL, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary.

Maracaibo, Venezuela.

Hon. B. K. BRUCE: With all my heart I congratulate you upon your return to your old position—Register of the Treasury. No man in public more deserves the compliment implied in this appointment than yourself. For a quarter of a century you have been a central figure in American politics, and it can be said of you as of few public men—never made a mistake.

E. H. PLUMACHER, U. S. Consul.

San Francisco, Cal.

Hon. B. K. BRUCE: As an exconfederate soldier, one who at the close of the war cast his lot with the Western people, I congratulate you upon the honorable appointment which you have received at the hands of the President. You are as pronounced a Republican as I am a Democrat, but I believe your appointment will in a measure contribute to the solution of the vexed problem with which the South is now dealing.

W. G. SYKES.

Augusta, Ga.

Hon. B. K. BRUCE: I most heartily congratulate you upon your most deserved recognition. A man in public life has done more to advance the interests of the colored people of the United States than yourself and for this they honor you.

W. J. WHITE, Editor Georgia Baptist.

New Haven, Conn.

Hon. B. K. BRUCE: Accept my congratulations. The fact that we have failed to give collectively our support to leading men of our race, who by earnest effort, intelligence, and thought have placed themselves side by side with leading men of our time has greatly retarded our progress, and such general recognition of united approbation of your worth will go a great way, I believe, toward demonstrating the fact that the Negro is destined to become an important factor in our body-politic.

Very respectfully, J. P. PEAKER, President State Summer League.

Mound Bayou, Miss.

Hon. B. K. BRUCE, Register of the U. S. Treasury.

Washington, D. C.

DEAR SIR AND FRIEND: It affords me unalloyed pleasure to congratulate you upon the action of the Administration in honoring you and the race through your appointment to the responsible office of Register of the Treasury. We of Mississippi feel especially honored, because one who has been so closely identified with us, to fill an appointment of such national import.

Your very truly, ISAIAH T. MONTGOMERY, Ex-Member Mississippi State Constitutional Convention.

New York City, N. Y.

Episcopal office.

Hon. B. K. BRUCE, My Dear Sir: Please accept my hearty congratulations. You remember some months ago I wrote you tendering them my congratulations on the fact that you would be appointed.

God bless you, I am your obedient servant,

W. B. DERRICK, Bishop A. M. E. Church.

Wilberforce University, Ohio.

Hon. B. K. BRUCE, Washington, D. C.

Accept my congratulations upon your appointment as Register of the Treasury. You probably recall my prediction made sometime ago that you would be appointed. You like Hon. John Sherman have done much for the party and should be recognized. We are so pleased with what the President has done and is doing for our people. Long life to you and the greatest success to the grand old party.

HORACE TALBERT, Secretary.

Franks Point, Miss.

Hon. B. K. BRUCE, DEAR SIR: Please accept even at this late date my hearty congratulation and appreciation of your appointment to the office of Register of the Treasury Department of this great nation of ours.

I further hail and congratulate you upon your appointment from the State of Mississippi.

My prayers shall be that God may protect and guide you in all of your business.

Your friend, Rev. M. E. DAVIS, President Spring Academy, Franks Point, Miss.

St. Louis, Mo.

Hon. B. K. BRUCE, Washington, D. C.

MY DEAR MR. BRUCE: That the President has seen fit to recognize your richly deserving services is a satisfaction to your old friends here in Missouri as well as to my humble self. It goes without saying I am at liberty to bespeak for you an efficient, honorable and successful administration of your high and responsible office. What is true of me in this connection is equally true of all right speaking gentlemen with whom I have talked and should be true of all with whom I have not yet met.

Very truly, your friend, J. MILTON TURNER.

Kansas City, Mo.

Accept my congratulations upon your appointment as Register of the Treasury. May you so conduct the affairs of the office as to reflect upon the race, and thus add another laurel to your crown.

L. C. WILLIAMS, Editor Kansas City Observer.

Columbus, Miss.

Hon. B. K. BRUCE, DEAR SIR: My congratulations are little late yet no less sincere. Your appointment meets the approval of all Republicans in this section of the State and is a compliment to your record of official life. With my own I extend to you the best wishes of Republicans here. I have talked with them and know they are pleased.

Very truly yours, JOHN T. WOOD.

Harrisburg, Pa.

Hon. B. K. BRUCE, Following out the old maxim, that it is never too late to do good, I beg leave to offer my sincere congratulations on your appointment as Register of the Treasury. There are three reasons why your appointment was justified and proper. First, that you are the real leader of the race who is of a national character and prominence; second, no man so ably filled successive positions of honor with more credit and ability both to his people and to the nation than your distinguished self; third, your great knowledge of the finances of the country and familiarity with the banking institutions made you, sir, the only available candidate, and the President, with great conception as to who was needed in that office, appointed you, sir, for which all the Afro-Americans in Pennsylvania thank him.

Senator, wishing you many years of continued success in your political career.

I remain, yours truly, W. J. BAILOR, Secretary Afro-American League of Pennsylvania.

Okolona, Miss.

Hon. B. K. BRUCE, My Dear Senator: While I have been somewhat dilatory in expressing my gratification at your appointment as Register of the Treasury it is no less sincere. The President acted wisely and your selection was a lofty solution of this matter.

You certainly displayed wonderful political sagacity in the management of your cause. You stand to-day permanently the foremost man of your race. I am proud of the fact that you are a Mississippian and that your appointment has been received with such universal favor throughout the length and breadth of our country regardless of race or party.

With best wishes for your future.

Very friends, W. D. FRAZEE, Ex-Chancellor of Mississippi.

Canton, Miss.

Hon. B. K. BRUCE, I heartily congratulate you upon your appointment as Register of the Treasury. The appointment is highly satisfactory to Republicans of this state.

F. B. PRATT.

DENVER, COLUMBIA SPEAKS.

2154 Arapahoe Street, Denver, Dec. 28, 1897.

To the WASHINGTON BEE:

I am no stranger to the careers of the appointer and the appointee; the distinguished President and the distinguished B. K. Bruce. Notwithstanding the divergent lines of opinions of the President's financial convictions he has made no mistake, in my humble opinion, in appointing Hon. B. K. Bruce Register of the National Treasury.

I hope to continue to be loyal to convictions.

Yours truly, H. O. WAGONER.

SEVEN YEARS A TRUSTEE.

SENATOR BRUCE'S RESIGNATION.

Senator Bruce more than a year ago tendered his resignation as member of the Board of school trustees of the District of Columbia, but in deference to the wishes of the Board of Commissioners, he withdrew the resignation and consented to serve the public a few months longer. On the 27th of November he formally filed his resignation with the request that it should be accepted at once. The following letter indicates Mr. Bruce's high standing with the Board and their appreciation of his long and honorable services.

Hon. B. K. Bruce, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir: The Commissioners have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 27th inst., tendering your resignation as a member of the Board of School Trustees.

In accepting the resignation, which they do with sincere regret, they desire to express to you their appreciation of your valued services in the interest of the public schools of the District. A copy of the order embodying their formal action in the matter is enclosed herewith.

Respectfully, John W. Ross, President Board of Commissioners

IT IS THE BEST.

[From the New York Union.]

THE WASHINGTON BEE, published at Washington, D. C., and edited by W. A. Chase, is one of the best newspapers of the day. The circulation is large therefore its qualities as an advertising medium attest its popularity.

Mr. Chase is a man of ability and experience beyond the common order.

WHAT I SAW AND HEARD

It will be a sad day for those Ohio republicans if they attempt to defeat Senator Hanna. It should not be a question about his return to the Senate.

The National Colored Protective League, which declared that it would fight the confirmation of Mr. Bruce, is an organization with a membership of officers, and not even then can they succeed in having a full attendance. The protest will result in the unanimous confirmation of Mr. Bruce.

Hon. George W. Murray, of South Carolina, will, its hoped, be seated. He has made a gallant fight and he is entitled to the undivided support of a Republican House.

The opinion is that President McKinley will make a few changes in the District government. There is a great deal of dissatisfaction among District republicans.

The boom for suffrage in the District is taking shape. The people are tired of the present form of government. If the present Congress refuse to take hold of the suffrage question the next Congress will.

The civil service sham laws are still in operation. There should be less talk and more action. Congress should repeal the law beyond all doubt. The question that the politicians are considering is the weakness of the republican leaders. Why don't they repeal the law and cease this unnecessary talk.

Public Printer Palmer is doing all he can for the republicans. Mr. Palmer is a grateful man and a strict party man, who has in the past looked out for the interest of the republicans. The present civil service law is a farce.

Secretary Porter is a wide-awake man. He knows how to handle a crowd in apple pie order. The crowds at the White House have been slim in the President's absence.

Senator Pritchard will introduce a bill in the Senate to place the Recorder's office upon a more solid foundation. There are many improvements to be made in the office, and can be made if the proper legislation is made.

There will be a few surprises coming in a few days. The President is not through making colored appointments. Mr. Gain, of Kentucky, will be cared for, provided a place big enough can be found for him.

The citizens are glad that Commissioner Ross returned to his old seat in the District building. A very few men like Col. John W. Ross and ex-Commissioner J. W. Douglass can be found. I suppose District republicans are aware by this time that Col. Douglass was the right man in the right place.

WHAT THE BEE WOULD LIKE TO SEE.

A new judge of the Police Court.

A few colored men appointed under the District government.

A colored prosecuting attorney.

Negro attorneys more united.

J. W. Lyons appointed postmaster at Augusta.

John B. Deveaux recognized by the administration.

Negroes be more manly.

District Attorney Pugh given credit for his honesty.

The republican party in Ohio united.

Bombastic candidates for office tell the truth.

THE BEE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW:

Who will be Justice of the Peace.

Why so many negro attorneys are jealous of T. L. Jones.

Why are some candidates for Judge of the Police Court such fools.

A few colored republicans appointment under the District government.

A recognition of the District government.

Harmony in the Board of District Commissioners.

IT IS RUMORED.

That the administration is dissatisfied with a certain colored official.

No more surplus money will be turned into the treasury from the colored public schools.

Judge Kimball is not safe yet.

The Senate will investigate the charges against him.

Remember the fact that the first impression is the most lasting.

Don't make an engagement that you can't fulfill; it shows deception.

Label: You arrogated your importance too much. The person who is self-conceited as to think he can do anything that others can't places himself in a very embarrassing attitude.

Label: Now that the holidays are approaching you should not fail to have your hair attended to. Pretty girls call for pretty looks. Call at 1012 Street N. W.

Label: Ladies do not whistle in nor of company. It shows a lack of refinement.

Label: Never employ yourself to displease others. It is better to find fault with your own than one of your neighbor's.

Label: People who are faultless are usually annoyed by the defects of others. Watch the person who is always listening to ascertain other people's faults.

Label: Fretting is a habit. He who frets never heals nor repairs.

Label: A man who will make a bridge for his friend and then walk over him is too ambitious to succeed. He may prosper for a while but fate is sure to overtake him.

Label: There is nothing so beautiful as a household in which Christian love smiles. If the young man and a Christian you should impress upon him the importance of becoming a Christian.

Label: If you cannot reform him before marriage it is doubtful that you will succeed afterwards.

Label: He who thinks himself the best person is really so but he thinks himself the wisest is usually the greatest fool.

Label: Don't approve of any woman being so spiteful to the man who toils for her every comfort at home. Remember that much of a man's energy, and happiness, depends upon the character of his home.

Label: Plutarch says, "Courage is not in hazarding without fear, but in being resolute in a just cause."

Label: Exaggeration or false coloring is such a violation of integrity as to be fatal.

Label: Manners are different but politeness is the same world over. A good person finds it very hard to be polite.

Label: Every household has a sunny member and why not you? Remember the beginning of the New Year and be that member. We are happy we can make you happy.

Label: An ungrateful man is everywhere. Be thankful of small things and you will not find them so small.

Label: Now that the holidays are over, let each one of my girls remember their parents in the gifts and let the outsiders come and see. Remember that mother and father are your best friends.

Label: A pretty grenadine undergarment with a bright shade of becoming and draped daintily with ribbons which the living will make an appropriate receiving toilet.

Label: Slipshod to match the bright in an evening dress are more in fashion than black or white for evening.

Label: Velvet and lace are seen as much on the most fashionable window-dresses.

Label: "Lace" is one of the most becoming dress shades to be seen in this time of wraps.

Label: Fashion demands that all who should escape the ground.

Label: All colors and kinds of birds are seen on hats, ostrich feathers in the lead.

Label: Don't ill-treat a person with whom you may need his services.

Label: It is well that all people are of the same opinion, so I am sure they would be socially ostracized. They show a lack of culture and refinement.

Label: It would be well for some people to remember that common sense is far more than education or to be bookish.

Label: To abuse a person and then ask him to show a fault with himself.

Label: You are entirely too covered because you can not succeed in an escort. You should not let all girls be false who are seen company with a young man.

Label: Dear girl, I would rather you be an old maid than an old maid.

Label: Friends are never happy, hence they make it pleasant for those with whom they come in contact. It is only those who can make others happy.

Label: You are too much in love with yourself. Be less self-conceited and more of a gentleman with a box of oysters than a pair of suspenders. Of these there are many other things appropriate than either.

A NEW FORM OF PERSONALITIES.

The old style of portraying famous people through a "sketch" or "biography" is to be modernized in The Ladies Home Journal during 1898. Five of the most prominent Americans have been chosen for the departure: President McKinley, Mrs. Cleveland, Mark Twain, Joseph Jefferson, and Thomas A. Edison. Each will have a special article, which will consist of about fifteen or twenty fresh, unpublished stories and anecdotes strung together, each anecdote showing some characteristic trait or presenting a different side of the subject. The idea is to show famous personalities through their own doings and sayings and to make these articles accurate the relatives and closest personal friends of the subjects have assisted and given to the Journal the best stories and anecdotes within their own knowledge. Each article will thus represent the closest view of the one sketched. No authorship will be attached to any of the articles.

$100 REWARD $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.—Sold by Druggists, 75c.

KING ALFRED'S LIGHT

Written for The Bee.
When Alfred was the people's king,
And reigned o'er England's soil,
A tape was made by his command
Of three equal parts its coil;
It burned brightly day and night,
Blessed of God was it holy oil,
One third marked rest, one third
prayers,
And the other third for toil.
The good king died and the Lomore
Leel
Was stamped into England's soil,
Then rest was short and prayers were few,
And lengthened the hours of toil,
And the people became instead of Lords,
The serfs of their native soil,
Which they ever will be, until they see
King Alfred's light for toil.
